We're now experimenting with this technology, and want to hear your feedback: find out what you think and what you want to see improved in FIFA Ultimate Team and the game. In the video below, we're going to show you how HyperMotion Technology looks and plays. We're also collecting data for our upcoming survey, so we can go in-depth about how you feel about this mode in FIFA Ultimate Team. If you have any questions, comments or feedback, we're here to listen.

Giant primary acellular crescentic amniotic membrane transplantation combined with simple suture for treatment of severe chemical eye burns. To evaluate the efficacy and safety of giant primary acellular crescentic amniotic membrane transplantation combined with simple suture for the treatment of severe chemical eye burns. A prospective interventional case series. Six patients with severe chemical eye burns were enrolled in this study. Grafting was performed within 7 days after injury in all patients. Acellular crescentic amniotic membrane was harvested from the hyalinized area on the umbilical cord and transplanted to the injured cornea with a simple interrupted suture technique. Best-corrected visual acuity, slit-lamp examination, and the extent of the burned area. Of the six eyes that were enrolled, two were graded as stage 3 and four were stage 4. The mean follow-up period was  $6.4 \pm 3.6$  months. No patient lost light perception because of hyphema or choroidal detachment. The median best-corrected visual acuity before surgery was 20/200, which improved to 20/63 ( $P = .000$ ) after surgery. The median size of the crescent was 4.4 mm in diameter. At the last examination, the median size of the crescent was 4.8 mm in diameter, which was smaller than before. Follow-up slit-lamp examination revealed that the sutures used to fix the transplanted crescent had not torn. No recurrence of the crescent was observed. Primary acellular crescentic amniotic membrane transplantation combined with simple suture technique is a useful, simple, safe, and effective surgical option for the treatment of severe chemical eye burns, which led to refractive and functional improvements, as well as stable sutures without recurrent ectropion.

What's new in Fifa 22:

- FIFA 22 introduces “HyperMotion Technology” which uses motion capture data collected from 22 real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power gameplay on the pitch. Experience Real Player Movement as the ball behaves dynamically in response to your player's physical movements off the ball. Opponents sense the pressure and movement of your players and react accordingly.

Vertical swipe and the Kick Pass receive new animations and controls. The Kick Pass can now be used to send a pass to a teammate from “behind you” by a simple swiping motion. In addition, the Ball Cam technology is fully integrated into Pitch v2 to provide fans with exact passes to the target player.

The newly integrated ‘Full Back Line Retaining System’ provides defenders with a better understanding of when they're about to lose possession of the ball.

Dynamic Behaviors of players provides a more realistic way to control the movement of players. Aerial abilities of players now changes and differs depending on the match situation. For example, forwards will jump higher when the ball is in close proximity.

Leg breaker melee attacks will leave marks on attackers if executed flawlessly. Also new dribble animations make big players appear menacing while defensive movements is represented with a caution flag.

- FIFA Ultimate Team - Pro and Manager modes improve even more. Create new unique kits and create your very own characters, giving you even more ways to customize. You can also carry passengers on the pitch (While some may find this inelegant).

The goalkeepers now have the ability to take penalty saves and even hold off on the ball with the new Goalkeeper Pass Control (GPC) feature.

The Championship Mode has been expanded to 48 teams with the return of the League Cup. Your favorite teams from the 11 divisions of worldwide football can compete for your ultimate ‘Championship’ title.

- Improvements to online leagues:

- Shot volume and player impact are increased to improve the overall quality of online leagues. Players will feel the collision and impact more realistically and defenders will see more

EA SPORTS™ FIFA is the world's most popular football game. The series leads the genre in delivering the most authentic and realistic sports gameplay on any console, with FIFA being played more than 300 million times a year. Preventing goals, controlling the ball, and shooting – everything is more immersive than ever before. Players can dribble like Michael or pass like Zidane, scoring with pinpoint shots or maintaining possession to plan their next move. The most sophisticated opponent AI ever in a FIFA game creates a wide range of challenges, from players stepping out of bounds, distracting opponents, or timing advanced defensive maneuvers to surprise and take advantage of overconfident players. The way players control the ball and pass it, distribute it, and hold it up in the air creates an extremely fluid game that combines the best aspects of all football games. The game stays true to the sport's traditions, with more than 500 licensed clubs and almost 75,000 licensed teams from over 100 countries, creating a true-to-life recreation of the sport around the world. The end result is an incredible journey through the incredible world of football, with players taking on the role of the best players in the world, performing in incredible stadiums, against incredible opponents, while competing in exciting tournaments. Features: The game becomes more challenging with new and improved offensive and defensive AI, while a new comprehensive Player Impact Engine offers improved interaction with the ball, enhanced ball physics, and a more realistic touch experience. FIFA 22 introduces a host of new Tactical Defending tools, including new roughness decisions such as, if the player gets caught up in contact with a defender's arm, a flag will be raised, which makes it harder for defenders to control, and players are less likely to foul. New Off-the-ball Decision Making introduces offensive and defensive reactions, allowing players to choose to pass to a teammate in anticipation of the pass to create a more intelligent game. Other new options include the ability to select the target of the pass and create a more personalized experience. Bringing a new perspective to the game, Emotions enhances the authenticity of player personalities, mixing comedy and drama to create unpredictable play and a rich interaction with the players. Substitute players react to events in the match, reacting to substitutions and free kicks to keep the match on its toes and make substitutions and free kicks part
