first, we have to download a bootable file. to do that, you can either use the os download section on the website, or use the ios/android apps provided by aliexpress. there are also free methods such as yousendit , netanalysisie , netanalysisie , upcloud , but they are more complicated. once you have a bootable file, we need to install it on your pc. to do that, we need to make an empty partition in our pc, go into the bios settings and enable ahci or raid 0/1/5/6, and then follow the instructions on your usb drive. once the bootable usb has been installed, we are ready to download the files that we want. since we have the usb drive connected to our computer, we can simply open up windows explorer and click on the "desktop" icon. there we can see a list of all the folders and files on our usb drive. all the folders that you can see on your computer will be here, and you can drag and drop files to them. the usb drive will usually start up in a "single drive" mode. if this is not the case, simply right click on the usb drive and select "format" and then follow the instructions to create a new partition. then we can create a new partition on the usb drive and move all the files into it. manageextras to access the settings of your reactable, simply click on the reactable icon on your desktop and select the "settings" on the right side of the top bar. the settings on the reactable are very basic. we can select whether it should be on or off, what settings to use, and if we want to display the keyboard and the touch screen. do note that the touch screen is only supported by windows 8 or higher. windows xp and 7 users can use the mouse.

rating: 4.0/5.0.00. it's one of those rare films that will make you connect to the character and the story, and remind you of how difficult life is on the fringe of society. there are many good movies in the world, but few have reached the heights of haider. the writing is beautiful, the film is surprising, the acting is emotional, the pace is deliberate, and the soundtrack is fitting, to say the least. it is a must-watch for bollywood. haider is a film that wants to be watched and relished, and mostly appreciated by audiences. rating: 4.0/5.0.00.

haider comes across as a story centred around people rather than a story about a story. it tells the story of a person with a family who fights for art and life, and is constantly pushed around by the society. the film and shahids commitment towards his character is extraordinary. he portrays the struggle of an artist against a society and its mental and physical ways of portraying emotions. though all the characters have been beautifully portrayed, it is the actor's performances that make the film what it is. write all your thoughts, don't hold back. don't let anyone's voice be muted. if you have a chance to write, do it. the more, the better. be bold, be strong. let go of freedom and let the voices speak to you. let your passions— your opinions—lead you. don't be a prisoner of the conformists. speak your mind, and speak often. whenever,

wherever, however. make sure that the madness you unleash is heard all over the world. the world needs your voice. give it the freedom to be heard.
